8 I.

9 INTRODUCTION

10 Currently, there are four securities class action lawsuits pending in this District against Leap
11 Wireless International, Inc., et al., (“Leap Wireless” or the “Defendants”): HCL Partners Limited
12 Partnership v. Leap Wireless Int’l Inc., et al., 07-CV-2245(the “Action”); Charek v. Leap Wireless
13 Int’l Inc., et al., 07-CV-2256; Campbell v. Wireless Leap Wireless Int’l Inc., et al., 07-CV-2297;
14 and Carmichael v. Leap Wireless Int’l Inc., et al., 08-CV-0128. All four of these cases involve
15 common questions of law and fact.
16

17 The first notice of pendency of class action was published pursuant to the Private Securities
18 Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the “PSLRA”) in a national, business-oriented wire service on 19 November 27, 2007 (See Declaration of Lionel Z. Glancy in Support of the Within Motion (the 20 “Glancy Dec.”), Exhibit (“Ex.”) A). This motion is being filed within 60 days from the date of 21 publication of that notice.

23 As set forth in the Certification of Securities Class Action Complaint (annexed as Ex. B to 24 the Glancy Dec.), the Carpenters Funds expended approximately $ $907,701.16 to purchase 13,800
25 shares of Leap Wireless during the Class Period. As a result of those purchases and the subsequent 26 stock price decline at the close of the Class Period, the Carpenters Funds had lost approximately 27
28

1 $252,783.22 as of November 12, 2007. Accordingly, it is respectfully submitted that the Court
2 should consolidate the Related Actions, appoint the Carpenters Funds as Lead Plaintiff most capable
3 of adequately representing the interests of the Class and approve the Carpenters Funds' selection of 4 SSSL as lead counsel and GBG as liaison counsel. Both SSSL and GBG have extensive experience
5 in securities fraud litigation and have won many important victories for injured shareholders. See
6 Glancy Dec., Exs. D and E.

8 II.

9 THE RELATED ACTIONS SHOULD BE CONSOLIDATED

10 This Action alleges securities claims against Leap Wireless and certain officers. The 11 subsequently-filed actions enumerated above allege one or more common questions of law or fact.
12 As a result, they should be consolidated pursuant to Rule 42 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
13 ("when actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may 14 order all the actions consolidated . . . and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as 15 may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay"). Fed. R. Civ. P. 42 (a).

17 III.

18 THE CARPENTERS FUNDS ARE THE MOST ADEQUATE 19 PLAINTIFFS UNDER THE EXCHANGE ACT

20 On December 22, 1995, Congress enacted Public Law 10467, entitled the Private Securities
21 Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the "PSLRA"). The PSLRA amends the Securities Exchange Act
22 (the "Exchange Act") to include a new Section 21D that, inter alia, sets forth a detailed procedure
23 for selecting the lead plaintiff to oversee class actions brought under the federal securities laws.

25 Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(i) of the Exchange Act directs the court to appoint as lead plaintiff "the 26 member or members of the purported plaintiff class that the court determines to be most capable of adequately representing the interests of class members.” Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(iii) requires a presumption that the most adequate plaintiff:
27

- (aa) has either filed the complaint or made a motion in response to a notice under [the PSLRA];
- (bb) in the determination of the court, has the largest financial interest in the relief sought by the class; and
- (cc) otherwise satisfies the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(iii).

The goal of Congress in enacting this provision was to “empower investors” to “have the greater control over class action cases.” See “Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 -- Conference Report,” 141 Cong. Rec. S17933-97, at S17956 (daily ed. Dec. 5, 1995).

The Carpenters Funds are institutional investors that have been injured by the fraudulent conduct of Defendants. House Commerce Committee Chairman Thomas Bailey has emphasized that the PSLRA was designed to “put control of class action lawsuits back in the hands” of “real shareholders” -- like the Carpenters Funds. See “Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 - Conference Report,” 141 Cong. Rec. H14039-52, at H14039 (daily ed. Dec. 6, 1995).

Moreover, in order to reduce “lawyer-driven” litigation, “through the PSLRA, Congress has clearly expressed its preference for securities fraud litigation to be directed by large institutional investors.” Gluck v. CellStar Corp., 976 F. Supp. 542, 548 (N.D. Tex. 1997). See also, Sakhrani v. Brightpoint, 78 F. Supp. 2d 845, 850 (S.D. Ind. 1999) (“The PSLRA was enacted with the explicit hope that institutional investors would step forward to represent the class and exercise effective management and supervision of the class lawyers”). By appointing the Carpenters Funds as Lead Plaintiff in this case, the Court would be fulfilling one of Congress’s major aims in passing the PSLRA, namely giving institutional investors an increased role in securities class actions.

1 In addition, the Carpenters Funds have a major financial stake in this litigation. As set forth
2 more fully in their Certification of Securities Class Action Complaint, the Carpenters Funds
3 expended approximately $907,701.16 to purchase 13,800 shares of Leap Wireless during the Class
4 Period. At the close of the Class Period, the Carpenters had lost approximately $252,783.22 in 5 connection with these transactions. See Glancy Dec., Ex. B. Thus, the Carpenters Funds are 6 precisely the type of investors that should be appointed as Lead Plaintiff in the consolidated action.

8 Section 21D(a)(3)(B) of the Exchange Act further provides that the lead plaintiff must also
9 “otherwise satisf[y] the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.” Rule
10 23(a) provides that a party may serve as a class representative only if the following four 11 requirements are satisfied:

- 12 (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable, (2) there 13 are questions of law or fact common to the class, (3) the claims or defenses of 14 the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class, and 15 (4) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

16 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a).

17 For purposes of appointing the lead plaintiff, “of the four prerequisites to class certification,
18 the focus is only on the typicality (Rule 23(a)(3)) and adequacy (Rule 23(a)(4)) requirements.”
19 Fields v. Biomatrix, Inc., 198 F.R.D. 451, 456 (D.N.J. 2000) (citation omitted); see also, Gluck v.
20 CellStar Corp., 976 F. Supp. 542, 546 (N.D. Tex. 1997). As a general rule, a plaintiff’s claim meets
21 the typicality requirement if it is both legally and factually similar and arises out of the same events
22 or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of the other class members. This does not require
23 that the claims be identical, but there must be some common question of fact or law. See In re
24 Independent Energy Holdings PLC Sec. Litig., 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 9359, at *12 (S.D.N.Y. May 25 28, 2002) (citing In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., 960 F.2d 285, 291 (2d Cir. 1992)).
26 Here, the Carpenters Funds’ claims are typical, if not identical, to the claims of the members of the 27
28

1 Class. As set forth above, the losses suffered by the Carpenters Funds resulted from Defendants'
2 common course of conduct which violated the Exchange Act by publicly disseminating materially
3 false and misleading information. Thus, the Carpenters Funds satisfy the typicality requirement.

4 Further, Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(iii) of the Exchange Act directs the Court, in evaluating the
5 adequacy of a proposed lead plaintiff, to limit its inquiry to the existence of any conflicts between 6 the interests of the proposed representative and members of the class, and allows the lead plaintiff to 7 retain counsel of their choice to represent the Class "subject to the approval of the court." See
8 Exchange Act § 21D(a)(3)(B)(v). The adequacy standard is met where (1) the named plaintiff has 9 interests common with the Class' interests; and (2) the representatives will vigorously pursue the 10 interests of the Class through qualified counsel. Baffa v. Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette Sec. Corp.,
11 222 F.3d 52, 60 (2d Cir. 2000) (citing Drexel, 960 F.2d at 291).
12

13 As set forth above, the Carpenters Funds' interests are clearly aligned with the members of 14 the Class, and there is no evidence of any antagonism between its interests and those of the Class.
15 The Carpenters Funds share numerous common questions of law and fact with the members of the 16 Class, and its claims are typical of the members of the Class. Further, the Carpenters Funds have 17 retained competent counsel to represent it in this case. Thus, the alignment of interests between the 18 Carpenters Funds and the Class and the skill of the Carpenters Funds' chosen counsel favor granting 19 the instant motion.

21 IV.

22 THE COURT SHOULD APPROVE THE CARPENTERS FUNDS' 23 CHOICE OF COUNSEL AS LEAD COUNSEL

24 The amendments to the Exchange Act vest authority in the lead plaintiff to select and retain
25 lead counsel, subject to the approval of the court. See Exchange Act §21D(a)(3)(B)(v). A court
26 should not disturb the lead plaintiff's choice of counsel unless necessary to protect the interests of the 27

1 plaintiff class. In the present case, the Carpenters Funds have retained SSLL as Lead Counsel to
2 pursue this litigation on its behalf. As stated above, SSLL has extensive experience in securities
3 fraud litigation. As a result, the Carpenters Funds' choice of counsel should not be disturbed.

CONCLUSION

For all the foregoing reasons, the Carpenters Funds respectfully request that the Court grant the instant motion and:

(i) consolidate the Related Cases for all purposes, pursuant to Rule 42(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;

(ii) appoint the Carpenters Funds as Lead Plaintiff in the above-captioned action and in the actions to be consolidated herewith pursuant to Section 21D(a)(3)(B) of the Exchange Act;

iii) approve the Carpenters Funds' choice of counsel and appoint SSLL as Lead Counsel and GBG as Liaison Counsel pursuant to Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(v) of the Exchange Act; and

iv) grant such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
